

TWO LUCKY SEINERS.

Good Hauls by Schs. Corsair and Nellie Dixon.

Found Good Fishing the Last
Two Days.

The best mackerel news for some time comes this morning from Southwest Harbor. Sch. Corsair, Capt. George Hamor, of this port, arrived there this morning with 200 barrels of salt mackerel. The fish were taken in the Bay of Fundy on Wednesday and Thursday.

Capt. Hamor has made a big record this season and since coming from south no vessel has made more stock than the Corsair.

Sch. Nellie Dixon of Boston was at Southwest Harbor, Me., with 250 barrels of salt mackerel. The Dixon was in company with sch. Corsair and got her fish at the same time yesterday and the day before. Sch. Lewis H. Giles was with these two vessels when they got their fish.

Most of the seiners which harbored here yesterday were part of a big fleet which was leaving the Maine coast to have a look over Cape Cod-way and Barnstable bay. Some harbored at Boothbay and others kept across to Provincetown.

Sch. Veda M. McKown was at Boothbay yesterday with 100 barrels of salt mackerel.

The netters are now doing very well in Barnstable Bay.

The fare of sch. Kentucky sold to Parmenter & Co. at $18.75 per barrel.

Good Share.

The crew of sch. Conductor, Capt. Alex. Haines, shared $174 as the result of their recent salt bank trip.

STILL HANGING.

No Change Noted in Flitched Halibut Situation.

Skippers Claim That Offer Made
Is Too Low.

The situation in the flitched halibut situation remained unchanged at 10 o'clock this morning. The sch. George Parker of Boston, which arrived here a week ago Saturday with her fare, sailed for her home port yesterday, her skipper and owner despairing of getting a market price set here.

Schs. A. E. Whyland, Edward S. Eveleth and Mystery which arrived a week ago Tuesday and schs. American and Carrie W. Babson, which arrived last Saturday, are still lying with their fares unsold.

Never before have fletchers remained with their fares unsold. The skippers claim that the offer 6 1/2 cents per pound is not adequate and that if sold at that figure, three of the six vessels would not make paying trips. They are still hanging out and some claim that they will make an effort to handle their own fares if they do not receive any better offer.
